Dancing Through It stars Francesca Van Horne in this one woman play featuring ten different characters played by Francesca. Written, directed, and choreographed by Tricia Brouk. Inspired by the memoir Tales From The Trundle written by Van Horne. We are all superheroes in our own lives. Dancing Through It is the story of a woman conjuring up the courage to leave a toxic situation and find a healthy one with herself. And choosing to dance right through it, with grace and humor.
